

Introduction

HEPAP Meeting

August 12, 2016
Teleconference

Andrew J. Lankford

HEPAP Chair

University of California, Irvine

First HEPAP Teleconference

From typical 3 HEPAP meetings per year

→ 2 face-to-face meetings + 2 teleconferences per year
with additional face-to-face meeting(s) if necessary

- Teleconferences will typically be updates for HEPAP on status of the U.S. particle physics program.
- Face-to-face meetings will be the occasion for topics requiring HEPAP discussion.

All HEPAP meetings, both F2F and telecons, are public meetings.

- The meetings will be minuted. (Trent Wakenight present today.)

IMPORTANT!

Teleconference etiquette

- Mute your phone/computer when not speaking.
- When you speak, please state your name.

Today's Teleconference Procedures

Speakers' presentations will be shared from the desktop of the host computer at DOE Germantown.

- They will be visible to those connected by internet.
- Speakers, please say when to advance to the next slide.

Presentations are also posted on the HEPAP Meeting web page.

- Those connected by phone, can follow the slides there.

We will have a series of presentations, as outlined on the agenda page.

- After each presentation, I will invite questions from HEPAP members.
- Following questions from HEPAP, if time allows, I will invite audience questions.
- When you ask a question, please state your name.

Roll call of HEPAP members by John Boger (DFO)

For the minutes, we must record the members present.
