

The 2014 Radiation Source Protection and Security Task Force Report

November 3, 2014

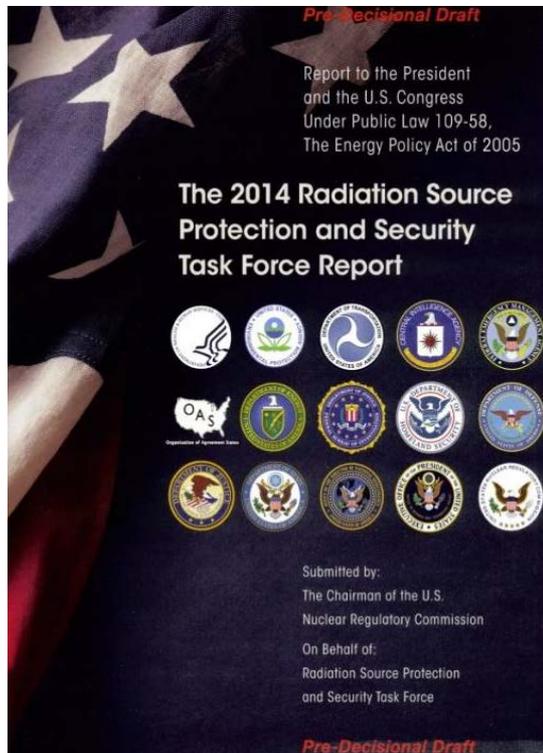

Adelaide Giantelli

Background

- Energy Policy Act of 2005
- Chaired by the NRC
- 14 Federal Agencies
- 1 State Organization (non-voting member)
- Important vehicle for advancing issues related to domestic security of radioactive sources
- 2006, 2010, and 2014 Task Force reports

The 2014 Task Force Report

- 3 main topical areas:
 - advances in the security and control of radioactive sources
 - status of the recovery and disposition of radioactive sealed sources
 - progress in the area of alternative technologies
- Recommendations
 - closed 17 (2006 and 2010)
 - leaves open 8
 - 3 new recommendations
- Continued coordination and communication

2014 Recommendations

- 3 new recommendations with regard to risk-significant sources address topics covering:
 - cybersecurity;
 - disposal/disposition financial planning; and
 - transition to effective alternative technologies

Next Steps

- Task Force meetings
 - Implementation plans for the open and new recommendations
 - Lessons learned from the development process
 - Strategic planning for the next four years

Reference

- <http://www.nrc.gov/security/byproduct/task-force.html>